JUDGE GETS ALL OF THE CENSURE

Court Will Probably Take up Question of Sheriff Working Prisoners With Governor.

IS BLAMED FOR WHAT HAPPENS

Cavitt Takes Newt. Casey and Police Court Prisoner to His Farm and Works Them All Day.

Numerous complaints have reached Judge Sparks regarding the action of Sheriff Cavitt in permitting Albert Newton Casey, convicted "bootlegger," to run at large while he is supposed to be serving time in the county jail. Casey is permitted to work on the Cavitt farm north of the city and today in company with George Pollock, another prisoner, sentenced from police court for eleven days for plain drunk, spent the day there working, even taking their dinner along so as not to lose any time coming back to the city.

The complaints have become so strong that Judge Sparks will probably take the matter up with Governor Ralston. It is being freely alleged that Cavitt is playing politics with the prisoners. Cavitt, it will be recalled, is the Democratic county chairman and is serving his last term as sheriff. It has been a common sight recently to see the sheriff taking Casey to his farm in his automobile.

Casey is now serving time, or at least is supposed to be serving time, on the original "bootlegging" charge since Governor Ralston revoked his parole. The complaints that have been made are based on the theory that there can be little punishment for Casey when he is not confined to the county jail as the jury directed when it returned a verdict of guilty. Little was thought of this phase of the case when Casey was seen riding with the sheriff in the automobile at first, but since it has become a regular occurrence the complaints have been increasing and the court has received the blunt of the censure, when as a matter of fact it is the sheriff that is taking the liberty and the chances of working Casey.

Pollock, the other prisoner at the Cavitt farm today, was sentenced only Monday of this week. He has eleven days to serve and yesterday was given a chance to escape the sentence. Some men came to his aid and offered to give him five dollars towards the fine, providing Pollock would give the other six dollars. Pollock turned down the proposition and this morning went to work for the sheriff.

Judge Sparks intimated today that he might try and find a way of sending Casey, the prisoner over whom he has jurisdiction, to Connersville, where he knew he would be kept in jail. Judge Sparks is not inclined to see Casey suffer any ill effects from his jail confinement, but does believe that Casey is not receiving the punishment meted out by twelve men in the circuit court. Mayor Bebout is equally opposed to the action of Sheriff Cavitt in taking the prisoners to his farm. Mayor Bebout stated that when he was sheriff it was customary to let the long time prisoners do a little manual labor around the jail, but to take a prisoner out to the country and leave him there all day without any guard and receive the benefit of his work was not believed proper.

It is alleged that through the sheriff the Democrats in Rush county are making a play to this element and hope to get their support at the coming election. Along this line, the Democratic county chairman is known to have gone on the bond of

WHITE IS NOT FOR WILSON

Progressive is Great Admirer of President, But That's All.

(By United Press.)
St. Louis, June 14.—William Allen White, one of the inner circle of Progressive leaders, arranged today to see Secretary of the Navy Daniels. He declared, however, it was not with any thought of finding a way for Progressives to join the Democratic party.

"I am not for Wilson," he said. "I admire Mr. Wilson very much but that is as much as I can say."

REMONSTRATORS PERFECT APPEAL

Taxpayers in Washington Township Base Contentment on Commissioners' Refusal of Election

OTHER CLAIMS ALSO MADE

The Charles L. Smullen et al., road case reached the circuit court today on an appeal from the commissioner's court. This action was predicted following the overruling of the remonstrance and a petition for an election by the commissioners. The road in question is located in Washington township. One of the most important things in the suit and a point on which the legal fight will be based is the question as to whether the commissioners ruled right in refusing to call an election.

The remonstrators maintain that the road sought to be improved is already a free gravel road and the cost of an improvement would be placed against the entire county instead of the township as is proposed to do under the petition. The original petition calls for the paving of the road with concrete for a distance of 3,300 feet. The remonstrators also state that the road does not connect with any other road and the part that is to be improved is a part of the same road.

OWNERSHIP BY THE GOVERNMENT URGED

Chairman of Resolutions Committee Walsh, Advocates Control of Telephone and Telegraph.

GOMPERS BEFORE COMMITTEE

(By United Press.)
St. Louis, June 14.—Government ownership of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines and coal deposits were advocated today for the Democratic platform in a report to the resolutions committee by Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the committee on industrial relations.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, submitted advocacy of organized labor for ownership of telephone and telegraph lines and a far reaching program of economic and industrial reform.

Gompers confined his demands largely to needs of labor. Walsh, however, went further and suggested planks for a better distribution of wealth.

CARAVAN LEAVES FOR SHELBYVILLE

Following Brief Exercises Here, Rushville and Connersville Crowds Depart About Noon

VISITORS' BAND IN CONCERT

A. L. Gary Calls Attention to Spirit of Flag Day and Ned Hawkins of Connersville Replies

The Rushville delegation of business men and Elks in fifteen automobiles, argued by the the Connersville delegation in twenty-two machines, formed a caravan that moved from this city, shortly before eleven o'clock this morning, towards Shelbyville where both delegations will participate in the Elks Flag Day celebration and the Sixth District Business Men's association meeting.

The Connersville delegation arrived here on scheduled time and was greeted by the Rushville merchants. The Commercial Club band accompanied the Connersville party and marched through the streets of the city. The band attracted much attention and rendered some very fine music. The band for the most part is made up of boys.

The local Flag Day exercises were held on the steps at the north entrance to the court house. A. L. Gary, local attorney, presided and in a brief address described the purpose of the day. The business men's organization here provided flags for everyone.

Mr. Gary stated that it was well that we set aside a day to pay tribute to the flag of the greatest country on earth. "Our flag is the emblem of our country and it is our patriotic duty to pay tribute to it," said Mr. Gary. "It has been to fight, but I hope we are not if the said that perhaps we are too proud time ever comes to follow our flag in the needs of our country."

Ned Hawkins, president of the Connersville Commercial Club responded. Mr. Hawkins stated that the real purpose of the Connersville delegation was to boost their centennial celebration to be held on July 3, 4 and 5. Mr. Hawkins told if the preparations that city was making for the celebration and invited the people of Rushville and Rush county to visit in Connersville on these dates.

"On the opening night," said Mr. Hawkins "your fellowtownsmen, James E. Watson will deliver an address. We invite you to come over and hear Mr. Watson, because you see we have come to Rushville to get our oratory."

The day's events at Shelbyville will close tonight with a banquet given by the Chamber of Commerce to the business men of the district. The Rushville delegation was to be augmented to several machine loads this afternoon.

8,000 PERSONS SEE PAGEANT

Crawfordsville, Ind., June 14.—The Crawfordsville state centennial pageant, which was held Tuesday afternoon in a field south of this city, attracted about 8,000 persons. The production lasted almost four hours. Its six episodes told the history of the county from the earliest period. More than 500 persons were in the cast, which was directed by Prof. D. D. Hains and Frank McGeath. The pageant was presented again today.

W.R.C. PRESENTS FLAG TO COURT

In Presentation Speech Miss Lily Armstrong Says Respect For Emblem Has Increased.

JUDGE W. M. SPARKS ACCEPTS

Declares Patriotism Does Not Mean Noise But Loyalty to Fundamental Principles of Government.

With appropriate exercises and unbounded patriotism the Woman's Relief Corps presented a large American flag to the Rush Circuit Court this afternoon as a part of the Flag day exercises held in the assembly room of the court house.

The flag is a large one and will be draped on the wall back of the judge's bench in the court room. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Lily Armstrong of Missouri, formerly of this city, and was accepted in behalf of the Rush County Bar association by Judge Will M. Sparks.

Mrs. Armstrong, in presenting the flag to the court, stated that some fifteen or twenty years ago the W. R. C. strongly advocated the teaching of patriotism in the public schools, and asked that flags be displayed from school buildings. "I recall," said Mrs. Armstrong, "that on one occasion a teachers' institute was asked to indorse the idea and see that flags were displayed from the school buildings. The reply came back to us, 'We are too busy.'"

"I am very thankful that times have changed and now we are taking a greater interest in our flag. We thought for a time that our flag would not be safe in the hands of so many foreigners who were coming to this country. Uncle Sam was easy for a long time in letting in many undesirables, but now this has been righted. We know Rush county is loyal to the flag and we do not doubt Judge Sparks' loyalty to the flag and the old soldiers. Our flag will be safe in his hands. We want a flag in every public place and believe that the Rush county court room should have this emblem."

In accepting the flag Judge Sparks said that he believed the gift would be an incentive to the court, the bar and the prisoner at the bar. Judge Sparks said that the people some times lose sight of the meaning of patriotism and that it is up to the people to teach the children the real meaning of the word.

"Patriotism," said Judge Sparks, "does not mean noise, but loyalty to the principles upon which this government is based. Patriotism means being true to your Christian ideals." Judge Sparks stated it was a shame that Decoration Day was being neglected more and more each year. He pointed out that there might come a time when our patriotism would be aroused and when this time came the cemetery on Decoration Day would be crowded with people.

"Let us take the time and teach our children the meaning of patriotism that they may have reverence for the flag. Patriotism means not only being protected by our flag, but protecting the flag."

The program was given as originally planned. Charlotte Norris' Sunday school class gave a song and Mrs. Selman Webb spoke on the subject, "What Our Work Is, And What We Do." Miss Glen Ross of Andersonville sang a solo.

The roads viewed yesterday by the county commissioners in Cincinnati were what is known as tarvia highways. The roads are macadam and are bound with the preparation known as tarvia. The commissioners were highly pleased with the trip and were impressed with the roads. They were loaded into two automobiles and "joy-riders" over miles and miles of the tarvia roads. GRAND JURY WILL REPORT NEXT WEEK

Ordered to Sit on Next Wednesday, But Nature of its Investigations Are Not Divulged.

ELIJAH HANKINS WINS SUIT

The grand jury has been ordered to report next Wednesday. This will be the first meeting of the grand jury this term of court. The session of the grand jury is said to involve some important matters, but the exact nature could not be learned.

The case set for today, that of James W. Gartin against the C. I. & W. railway was continued until June 30. The suit is for damages demanding $1,000 and is based on an automobile accident at the Main street crossing of the railway.

Judge Sparks found for the defendant, Elijah Hankins in the suit brought against Hankins by H. G. Hackman supplemental to execution. Hackman obtained a judgment against Hankins some time ago, but was not able to satisfy this by an execution and the suit tried yesterday was an attempt to find out if Hankins was concealing some property.

WILSON'S NAME LOUDLY CHEERED

Mention of President by Ex-Governor Glynn Sends Democratic Convention on Demonstration

IS APPLAUDED 15 MINUTES

Three-Day Session, to Result in Wilson's and Marshall's Nomination Begins at 12:31

(By United Press.)

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 14.—The mentioning of President Wilson's name by Ex-Governor Glynn in his keynote address sent the Democratic national convention on its first demonstration. The delegates yelled, applauded and waved flags for fifteen minutes.

Chairman William McCombs pounded sharply with his gavel at 12:31 today and the Democratic convention started on its three-day session which will end in the nomination of Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey and Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana for president and vice-president of the United States respectively.

The big coliseum was crowded long before noon, the hour set for the convention to convene. Delegates, after running the gauntlet of the silent suffragists who stretched in long lines away from the convention hall doors, arrived early.

The "big guns" of the convention were late in arriving and the delegates and spectators sweltered in the sultry air of the coliseum. William Jennings Bryan was given an ovation, press ticket and large fan in hand.

Following the call to order, the convention arose and sang "America." Frequent applause greeted the opening address by Chairman McCombs. The convention call was read and amid applause the temporary role of the convention was adopted, with Ex-Governor Glynn of New York at temporary chairman.

Something more than 8,000 persons assembled here at noon today to waste time and speak and listen to speeches for three days before they do the one thing for which they have been chosen. In other words the Democratic national convention was called to order by National Chairman McCombs and started on its oratorical way towards the nomination of President Wilson and Vice-president Marshall.

Because of the very fact that the work of the convention is so pre-functory there was growing sentiment today among the delegates that its work will be hurried along. There may be an attempt to advance the date of the nomination instead of waiting until after midnight Friday to put through the national ticket.

The program for today's session was purely routine. First came the address of Chairman McCombs. Then Former Governor Glynn was introduced for his keynote speech. After arranging a few details of organization, the convention was to adjourn until Thursday.

WAR HITS PERFUME

Paris, June 14.—Perian perfume makers are soon to be hard hit; and likewise is Milday's bondior. Riviera advises complain that there is not sufficient labor to gather the orange blossoms, hence Milday will soon find the trusty atomizer lacking those favorite and world-known scents a la Frabeais. Female labor, which the perfume distillers hoped to enlist has not been found and it is declared now almost too late to save the situation. In addition, the scent makers are handicapped by lack of water due to the blocking of the Sangu Canal, especially constructed to supply the distilleries. The scope of the Riviera perfume industry is shown by the fact that there are 1600 members of the Orange Flower Growers Association, most of whom will suffer heavy financial losses on account of the war labor and water shortage.

TO GET MEN FOR TRAINING CAMP

Circulars Setting Forth Object, Instruction and Other Matters Sent Here

FIRST ONE OPENS JULY 5

Although no One From Here Expects to Enroll, Number Expect to Visit Ft. Harrison

Circulars have been received here setting forth the object, organization, course of instruction, enrollment and other matters of interest concerning the military training camp which will open at Fort Benjamin Harrison, ten mile from Indianapolis, July 5 and will continue until August 4. A second camp will be held from August 7 to September 6. The third, to have been held from September 8 to October 3, has just been called off.

So far as is known, no one from here will enlist in the camp, but there is considerable interest in the coming events. Although many men have the desire to take a month's workout at one of the camps, they do not have that much time for a vacation. In addition, it will cost each man who enrolls $25 for camp expenses. Many people have planned to visit one of the camps and witness the military tactics.

Captain Bruce Barrett of the regular army, stationed at the headquarters of the central department in Chicago, will visit Indiana cities and towns in the interest of the camps and will likely be in Rushville some time before the opening of the first camp.

It was the original intention that the enrollment for each camp be limited to 1,000 men, as it was believed that instructors could not be obtained to take care of more than this number. Because of the number of applications, however, this limit has been removed. The camp organization will consist of a commanding officer, an adjutant, a quartermaster, an assistant to the quartermaster, and a surgeon.

The training companies will consist of 100 to 150 men, according to the number enrolled. To each company will be assigned one regular army officer, commanding, and so far as practicable, one officer as assistant.

The noncommissioned officers will consist of those citizens who have had previous experience, either in the regular army or with the militia or military schools and colleges. Of these, there will be a first sergeant, two quartermaster sergeants, two mess sergeants, five sergeants and ten corporals. If they prove fit, sergeants will be permanently appointed. Corporals will be changed frequently to do what they can to instruct squads. From these corporals selection will be made of sergeants. Corporals will be appointed by company commanders and sergeants by the camp commander.

The cooks are to be enrolled as other men, so as to keep them under discipline. There will be ordered from the Ft. Riley School of Cooks one sergeant as chief instructor, who will take general charge of the cooking establishment. One hundred bills of fare used at the Ft. Sheridan camp last year will be provided to use as samples. A sergeant will have charge of the bakery.

According to the present plans, a detachment of the Thirtieth cavalry, stationed at Ft. Riley, will be sent to the camp. It is also planned to send company No. 1 of the field hospital corps, and company No. 1, of the ambulance corps, from Ft. D. A. Russell. Thirty-nine soldiers will be sent from Ft. Riley and ninety-two soldiers from Ft. D. A. Russell.

Colonel B. A. Frederick recommended that the third camp now slated to begin September 8 and continue until October 5, be called off, as instructors will not be available at that time. The war department followed this recommendation and there will be only two camps, one opening July 5 and one August 7.

Mystic Theatre

"CABIRIA"

The last word in motion photographic art comes to the

MYSTIC THEATRE Friday, June 16

Gabriele D'Annunzio, who is unquestionably Italy's foremost dramatist, wrote and personally staged the photo spectacle, "CABIRIA." Experts in motion photography predict a new epoch with the introduction of this remarkable film, which is a historical vision of the third century B. C., immediately after the close of the first Punic war. It has never been equalled for regal splendor and barbaric magnificence. Its cast is composed of the best known players of Rome and the ensembles, mobs and armies number over seven thousand people.

D'Annunzio has taken as a basis of this story the strife between Carthage and the Romans, at the time Hannibal took command of the Carthaginian forces, and surprised his antagonists by crossing the Alps with his army. The romance of "CABIRIA" is fictional, but the action and main facts, historical. "Cabiria" the title is the principal character of the scenario. The name means "one rescued from the flames" and Cabiria, an infant child, taken prisoner during the eruption of Mt. Etna, is sold into slavery. The high Priest of the Temple of Moloch was the purchaser and the infant is kept with others until the time arrives for her to be sacrificed to Moloch, whom the Carthaginians worshipped as the God of Fire. She is saved by a young Roman, "Fulvius," and her experiences and sensational escape with the assistance of a veritable Hercules, form the nucleus of the plot. 1200 scenes, a cast of 7,000 characters, herds of elephants and camels—a $250,000 production.

MORE RACES ARE PUT ON PROGRAM

Three Are Added by Rush County Association, Two Running Events and Other a Trot

MUCH MONEY IN RACE PROGRAM

Free Night Fair This Year is Expected to Attract Large Crowd

—Turnstiles to be Added

An additional three races have been announced for the Rush County Fair program. The three races include two running races and a 2:24 trot. The running races will be given on Wednesday and Friday and the trot will be added to the Thursday afternoon program. The purses for the running races are $50 for the Wednesday race and $75 for the Friday event while the 2:24 trot will be worth $150.

The fair association this year is placing most of its money in the race program, which promises to be the best in years. Little money will be spent for free attractions and other features. The money that would have gone towards these features will be placed in the race program, thus practically assuring the best racing in years.

With the added race for Thursday the card for this day will contain a total of four purse races including the 2:40 pace, 2:16 trot, 2:25 pace and the 2:24 trot. This program should furnish plenty of sport for the lovers of light harness events.

It was also announced that the night fair this year would be a free event. Heretofore an admission has been charged for the night fair and by making the event free it should be a success this year.

Another new feature this year will be the installing of turnstiles at the railway gates. The old system will prevail at the other gates. The concession privileges are being taken rapidly and it was stated that this year's event would see many added features on the grounds.

ductions at Bayreuth also will be heard in Indianapolis for the first time. Many of the artists in this cast are familiar to the concert going public, but Ona B. Talbot has been fortunate in securing the production of this opera with an All-star cast in Indianapolis. This will be known as a pilgrimage to the shrine of Richard Wagner's work and all who are interested in the development of Music in the State of Indiana should make a special effort to be present for the success of this undertaking. Every convenience has been arranged at the Coliseum Fair Grounds Indianapolis for the patrons who wish to attend this performance. Cars may be parked where special attention will be given to protect them, for a fee of fifty cents within the Fair Ground. The gates to the grounds will be opened at 5 o'clock for those who motor to Indianapolis if they wish to come directly to the grounds where a Buffet Luncheon will be served, or if one wishes to bring their own luncheon they may do so. All orders should be mailed to Ona B. Talbot Office 916 Hume Mansur Bldg. accompanied by a self addressed stamped envelope for return of tickets.

In February, the Metropolitan Opera House in New York held a capacity audience in response to the announcement that Madam Schumann-Heink would sing the role of Erda in "Siegfried." It was the first time in thirteen years that the greatest living Wagnerian singer had appeared on those boards, and the opera loving public was eager to welcome its favorite prima donna and shower upon her applause such as is rarely heard even in that famous auditorium. The day following, critics and public alike talked of the event.

W. J. Henderson in the New York Sun wrote, "The house was crowded and there were as many standing as if the only Caruso had been cast for the title role. Ernestine Schumann-Heink reappeared at the opera house in "Siegfried" and once more sang Erda as it is only simple justice to say, only she can.

Makes Auto Demand.

One hundred and sixty-five million dollars worth of automobiles and parts, engines and tires, were exported from this country during the first 19 months of the European war, August, 1914 to February, 1916, inclusive, easily 80 per cent. of which went to the belligerents. Our normal exports of these articles run about $35,000,000 annually, although there was a falling off in their value just prior to the outbreak of the war. During the calendar year 1915 England took more than our total normal export of these products. A large percentage of the total consisted of commercial automobiles, or trucks, etc.

No single factor is of more importance in conducting modern warfare than that of sufficient and quick transportation. How many defeats have been directly attributable to the fact that supplies were delayed for lack of carriage facilities? No sooner was the European war declared than every motor car available was commandeered, the owner given a receipt, and his car pressed into service. An American army officer who returned from Europe some time ago estimated the average life of a car operated behind the lines at from 10 to 20 days. The first three products sought by the belligerents from the United States were breadstuffs, horses, and automobiles, and a steady stream of those commodities has been flowing to Europe since the war began.

But the prosperity which war orders for automobiles has brought to Detroit, for instance, is by no means confined to that city. It is distributed in countless ways. From the man who works out the ore in the ground to the boy who packs the grease in the clutch, every employee engaged in turning out the finished product, on part, reaps a benefit from Europe's unfortunate quarrel. Steel, leather, rubber, copper, glass—a score of products go into the manufacture of these cars, and all supply a profit to someone. And the profits and the wages are invested, or hoarded, or spun on the counters of the merchant. Charlie Chaplin gets a chunk of it; Billy Sunday gets a bit. Consider the number of times a dollar changes hands, and multiply that by 165,000,000. And then you have considered but one commodity which is going to Europe from this county, though we have sent billions of dollars worth of goods there to be used in conducting the war.

This is the sort of "unexampled prosperity" of which the Democratic party boasts, and on which it will go to the country in the coming campaign. But the people of the United States have a high contempt for a party whose chief argument for a continuance in power is bed-rocked on the murder of millions of mankind.

We can imagine no more distressing sight than to see a beautiful complexion disappearing with the perspiration on a hot summer day.

When a fellow ahems and fidgets and squirms he is generally getting ready to say nothing or tell a whopper.

Having failed in his announced determination to kick the American army out of Mexico, the only remaining thing now for Obregon to do is to kick some sense into Carranza.

It begins to look as though the crowned heads of Europe had grabbed a great big bear by the tail and don't know how to let go.

Perhaps, though, those border raids are just neighborly calls from our dear friends on the other side.

Jordan may be a hard river to cross, but not so the Rio Grande.

Sympathetically, you know, we might remark that a few "favorites" appear to be anything except favorites.

General Carranza continues to insist that we get out of Mexico. But in the end, probably, he will get out himself.

This war will certainly have a unique place in history. It is creating more widows than heroes.

Some men, like the cinder in your eye, are remembered chiefly for the smart they leave behind.

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

Robert Dale Owen.

With the history of the community settlement at New Harmony is inseparably linked the name of Robert Dale Owen, one of Indiana's foremost pioneers. Born in Glasgow Scotland, November 7, 1801, educated in Switzerland, Owen immigrated to America and as the leader of the community movement moved to New Harmony in 1825.

As a member of the state legislature of 1836 Owen introduced a bill granting women the right to own and control property. He served two terms in Congress but his greatest service was in the constitutional convention where he was among the ablest members.

Owen was an active supporter of the Union during the Civil War, wrote tracts, purchased arms for the state troops, and wrote to Lincoln urging emancipation. He died in 1877.

Pork Versus Patriotism
(San Antonio Light.)

Just at present the Fourteenth Texas congressional district is being flooded with copies of an address delivered in the national house of representatives by Clyde H. Tavenner of Illinois. These pamphlets are being sent through the mails by the personal frank of James L. Slayden, and there is about a ton of them in weight.

Mr. Tavenner has all along been a strong opponent of preparedness. He says the people cannot permit that their money shall be wasted in that way. He further declares that it is the duty of congressmen to see that the funds of the people are not frittered away, and he still further poses and says that preparedness against war is an utter and complete waste of public funds.

Now this same Mr. Tavenner has asked congress to appropriate $50,000 for a postoffice in a certain town in his district. The town has a population of 2,000, and Mr. Tavenner, who is so solicitous of the public funds, wants only about $25 out of the public funds which it is per head for the people of that town the sworn duty of congressmen to so sacredly guard.

Giving San Antonio a population of 125,000—she has more than that, but takes the minimum number which Dallas and Houston will give us—and see what sort of a postoffice we should ask for on the same basis. All we would get would be a public building costing $3,125,000 which will supply the postal needs to San Antonio for many years to come.

And the people of the United States are asked to pay this money to assist in securing the return to congress of a man who will not even do as much for them as to attempt to insure them against the evils and horrors of war.

Truly a great patriot is this Tavenner. Give him all he wants and the remainder of the people of the United States may go to destruction.

The prices we're now naming on made-to-measure clothes are absolutely sensational. The prices of all fine woollens have gone up and despite that fact our prices are going down.

Here's why: The Wholesale Tailors have reached the end of their busy season—business has slowed up—their tailors are idle—but their expenses are as great as ever.

So they've told us to cut prices and charge the reductions to their account. We needed no second invitation—we knew you'd jump at the chance to buy custom made clothes at a great deal less than regular prices.

Come in and see what's doing. Come in and save. Come in and get fine custom made, hand tailored clothes at the lowest price on record

DEFENDS THE WILSON REGIME

Martin H. Glynn Delivers Keynote at Opening of Democratic National Convention

PARTY IS PROUD OF ITS PAST

Former Governor of New York Confines His Speech Largely to Defense of Administration

(By United Press.)

St. Louis, June 14.—Confining himself almost entirely to a defense of the acts of the Wilson administration, Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, delivered the keynote address at the opening of the Democratic national convention here today. He spoke in part as follows:

The Democratic party, in this convention assembled, meets to perform a duty, not to itself, but to the nation. Proud of the part it has played in the nation's past, the party of Jefferson and of Jackson is gathered here to dedicate itself anew to the preservation of a free, a united, a sovereign republic.

We are proud of the battles we have fought in the past under the emblem of a great political party, but there is a truth that we desire to blazon above all that we may say or do in this convention. . . .

When a hundred years look back upon this gathering of today, when we who now guard the ark of American covenant have become nothing but a memory and a name, the principles for which we declare in this convention, the issues for which we fight in this campaign will live in the lives of generations of Americans yet unborn.

If in the great crisis that now confronts the nation, the American people falter, if they forget that they are guardians of the most sacred trust that a people ever held, their apostasy will be visited upon the descendants of their children's children. . . .

One hundred and forty years ago the manhood of America was called upon to decide whether this should be a nation. Half a century ago Americans were forced to determine whether this should continue to be a nation. Today the Republic faces a third crisis no less momentous than that of 1776 or that 1860. Today Americans must again determine whether this country shall preserve its national ideals, whether it shall have a national soul, whether it shall stand forth as a mighty and undivided force, whether the United States for which Washington fought and for which Lincoln died shall hold its place among the nations. . . .

What the people of the United States must determine through their suffrage is whether the course the country has pursued through this crucial period is to be continued; whether the principles that have been asserted as our national policy shall be endorsed or withdrawn.

This is the paramount issue. No lesser issue must cloud it, no unrelated problems must confuse it. . . .

"To maintain our national honor by peace if we can, by war if we must," is the motto of the President of the United States.

But before submitting to the chance and misery of war, true statesman that he is, he proposes to put the reason and justice of negotiation to the test. If they are as patriotic as they pretend those who ensure this policy of negotiation may blush from shame to learn that they censure the policy pursued by the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

In the document which made us free John Hancock and Benjamin Franklin and Charles Carroll and all the other signers declare (I quote their exact words), they declare they "appealed," they declare they "conjured," they declare they "warned," they declare they "reminded," England of our wrongs before we went to war.

Any one can disparage diplomatic procedure, but only men of patience and principle can successfully conduct it. . . .

But, say our critics, this policy satisfies no one.

They mean it does not satisfy those who would map out a new and untried course for this nation to pursue, but they forget it does satisfy those who believe the United States should live up to the principles it has professed for a century and more.

Chief Justice White of the United States Supreme Court, says this policy has given America the greatest diplomatic victory of the past generation. Maximilian Harden, Germany's noted editor, says "that never once has this republic violated its neutrality," and Gilbert K. Chesterton, the famous English journalist, says, "it is the duty of the President of the United States to protect the interests of the people of the United States," that "he can't dip his country into hell just to show the world he has a keen sense of being an individual saviour." . . .

But I cannot close this brief and inadequate review of what the present administration has accomplished without advertising to its courageous and statesmanlike solution of the nation's tariff problem.

The Underwood tariff enacted by this administration has banished greed from the gates of our ports and written justice into our tariff schedules.

Of all the tariffs we have enacted this is the fairest and the best.

Until the foreign war reduced imports no new tariff was ever more satisfactory. The highest protective tariff ever written would probably have given us no more revenue during this European war and a higher tariff on raw material would have hampered our manufacturers, a higher tariff on the necessities of life would have placed a woeful burden on the poor man in the conditions which the war abroad has brought about.

By the Underwood law this administration has taken the tariff out of politics; by the new Tariff Commission it proposes to take politics out of the tariff.

The consumers of the nation, and this means every man, woman and child within its borders, have been freed from an unique and oppressive system which enriched the few at the expense of the many.

It is not my purpose to discuss the assaults that special privileges have made upon the provisions of the Underwood act. These selfish and unfounded criticisms have been completely answered by one who is amply competent to judge and public-spirited enough to speak. Democracy's reply to those who would overthrow the tariff law that a Democratic Congress has enacted is the reply of that eminent banker, that financial genius, Mr. Jacob H. Schiff.

A familiar burden in many homes. The burden of a "bad back." A lame, a weak or an aching back. Often tells you of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is Rushville testimony. Mrs. Jacob Roth, 820 N. Perkins St., Rushville, says: Doan's Kidney Pills have been used time and time again by different ones of the family and they have never failed to give perfect satisfaction. For rheumatic pains, kidney and bladder trouble, I know that Doan's Kidney Pills can be relied upon to bring almost immediate relief. I have such faith in this medicine that I never fail to speak a good word for it, whenever I hear anyone complaining of kidney trouble." (Statement given March 9, 1910.)

On Aug. 26, 1915, Mrs. Roth said: "In my opinion there is nothing better for the kidneys than Doan's Kidney Pills. I keep them in the home all the time, even though they are seldom needed. I think that they were the means of keeping one of the family alive and not only that, but I have used them with great success myself."

The ceremony room was a profusion of pink roses, marguerites and Southern smilax. The altar was a bank of Southern palms and roses.

The bride never looked more beautiful. She was dressed in a handsome cream taffeta, trimmed elaborately in oriental lace, and wore a veil, made cap effect and trimmed in orange blossoms and also with lace which was on her mother's wedding dress. She carried a showery bouquet of Sweet-heart roses and lilies of the valley. Her going away suit was black and white and she wore a chic hat. The groom wore the conventional black.

The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Green, of Manilla, and is an industrious young man of excellent character. He is a member of the S. A. E. fraternity and a graduate of the Southern Military School at Sewanna, Tenn.

SOCIETY GIVEN BIG SURPRISE

Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton and Police Commissioner Woods Married Today.

WAS REGARDED AS BACHELOR

Bride is Granddaughter of Late J. P. Morgan and Descendant of Alexander Hamilton.

(By United Press.)
Sterlington, N. Y., June 14.—Society was taken completely by surprise by the news that Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pierson Hamilton, granddaughter of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, and great-granddaughter of Alexander Hamilton, is to become the bride of Police Commissioner Arthur Woods. She was a favorite of the financier and was at his bedside when he died in Rome on March 31, 1913.

Miss Hamilton and Mr. Woods were married here today. Bishop Rhinelander of Philadelphia, an uncle of the bride, officiating.

Friends of Mr. Woods, both in public and private life, had come to regard him as a confirmed bachelor. Even those closest to him in the affairs of the great department of which he is the head had no hint that he ever thought of romance as they went about the unsentimental business of the department together.

Miss Hamilton was introduced to society a year and a half ago. She stepped immediately into the front ranks of the young set in society. She became a member of the Colony Club and joined the Junior League.

Through her father and mother she is descended from well known American families that have been identified with public life for many generations. Her mother, who was Miss Juliet P. Morgan, is one of the four children of the late financier and philanthropist, the others being Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee and Miss Anne T. Morgan.

Mr. Woods, after having been Mayor Mitchell's private secretary for three months, was designated Police Commissioner in 1914.

The Commissioner is forty-three years old. In 1892 he was graduated from Harvard.

Before that date he had decided to find a career in public life. His first opportunity came in 1905, when he went to the Philippines in the party with Mr. William Howard Taft, then Secretary of War.

REPORTER WITH BOIL MAKES A DISCOVERY.

BY WILBUR S. FORREST.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
London, June 1.—(By Mail)—

The strain of twenty months of war on the composite brain of a nation showed today that common, ordinary bandage is the new insignia of sympathy.

Just like the sight of shamrock flashes to the brain of an individual that it's St. Patrick's day, the sight of bandage tells the average Britisher that he should be sympathetic. To have on your finger a semi-carbuncular furuncle (which is an overzealous boil) is to wear your arm in a sling. This means a liberal display of bandage.

Walking along a crowded London thoroughfare with your arm in a sling transforms you from an able bodied slacker to a hero just back from the front.

A uniform isn't necessary. The sympathetic "composite war brain" overlooks all that is lacking. You have been wounded and it can readily be seen that you are tired of wearing your uniform and you are anyhow.

Old ladies beam on you in trams, modest about attracting attention buses and subways.

You are petted and pampered by conductors who hold their vehicle while you get safely seated.

Men on the street who wear the Derby armet look sheepish when you pass. Barbers take special care not to jostle your "wounded" arm. Waitresses and waiters sympathetically carve your meat.

Ushers in theatres follow you to your seat and take your things back to the cloak room.

Shop clerks tie up your bundles with a special loop of string so you can hook it over an unwounded finger.

Traffic "Bobbies" occasionally salute.

Everybody has your number. Except: a wounded soldier, except:

When you are an American reporter with a boil on your finger.

In 1907 he left the Police Department with Commissioner Bingham and passed some time in Mexico, remaining out of public life until 1912.

Commissioner Woods lives at the Harvard Club. He also is a member of the Racquet and Tennis Club.

PARADE OF SUFFS TWO MILES LONG

Stage Pageant in St. Louis in Hopes of Impressing Democrats Attending Convention.

MANY SPEECHES TO BE MADE

(By United Press.)
St. Louis, June 14.—Thousands of American suffragists here today to impress the Democratic convention, stood in a silent line from the Hotel Jefferson to the Coliseum, almost two miles, as a plea for a suffrage plank to the Democratic platform.

A concentrated battery of 5,000 pairs of feminine eyes was turned upon the delegates to the Democratic national convention today in an appeal of "votes for women."

The attack, staged by the National Woman's Suffrage organization, headed by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, was the most spectacular event of the suffrage campaign before the convention. Five thousand women, voiceless, motionless, with steady gaze for two hours, tried to stare a supposedly somewhat unfriendly national convention out of countenance and into an attitude of meek receptivity.

The "Golden Lane" so-called because of the garb of the women—white suits draped with yellow sashes—was under the direction of the Equal Suffrage league of Missouri.

The delegates and visitors from the Jefferson will be forced to ride through this lane if they go via automobile or chose to walk up St. Louis' Downtown Automobile "road."

Speech making tours of the various state delegation headquarters will be made by the women during the convention.

There are ten women delegates to the democratic convention from five states.

AGREED FIRST TIME IN YEARS

Democrats Open Convention in St. Louis Without Any Doubt About Nominee

BALTIMORE IS RECALLED

Bitter Factional Strife of Four Years Ago Will Not Strike Discordant Note This Time.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
BY PERRY ARNOLD.

St. Louis, June 14.—For the first time in decades, Democracy's hosts met in quadriennial session today with complete agreement on the choice of national standard bearer. There wasn't a delegate who didn't agree to the renomination of President Woodrow Wilson.

The bitterness of the factional strife at Baltimore four years ago was gone. Advance indications were for a regular "love feast" with the only possibilities for any difference of opinion present in the building of a platform.

It was a cheerful, optimistic, cheering and confident throng that responded to the bang of National Chairman William F. McCombs' gavel. No specter of an internecine fight intruded.

First of all, the delegates were meeting in Missouri one of whose favorite sons four years ago was a defeated candidate in the battle of the ballots.

That same favorite son—Speaker Champ Clark—as if to emphasize the healing of the wounds dealt him by the Baltimore gathering, was one of the loudest in his praises of the men who took from him the honor of leading the Democratic hosts.

"I believe the convention can adjourn by Friday, if it so desires," Chairman McCombs said just before convening the assembly.

The delegates, themselves however, indicated early in the meeting their desires to hear "glorification" speeches and this excess of enthusiasm was expected to prolong the convention until Saturday morning.

St. Louis began playing the host to the visiting thousands in royal fashion. Non-partisan committees galore, whose interest and energy was bent solely toward making visitors comfortable and happy, were constantly in attendance.

The convention is St. Louis' first chance since the Louisiana Purchase Exposition of 1904 to entertain distinguished guests, and St. Louisans were determined to make the occasion a memorable one.

The convention hall itself had been repainted throughout, mostly with white paint so that every possible bit of light was reflected into its gigantic interior.

Special ventilating apparatus cooled the sultry air. Delegates and alternates alone were permitted on the ground floor, permitting more comfortable seating space for the men who actually do the convention work.

One topic which was eagerly discussed by the crowds in the streets and hotel lobbies was the so-called "unit rule" and "two thirds" regulation which from time immemorial has ruled at Democratic conclaves.

There was general belief expressed that the regular quadriennial attempt to overthrow these ancient rules would succeed this year.

Delegates recalled that the attempt was made four years ago in Baltimore and defeated mainly because there was such bitter strife between the candidates. If the two-thirds rule had not been in effect at Baltimore, Champ Clark, Missouri's favorite son, would have been named.

This year, it was conceded, will be an excellent opportunity for the Democratic party to abolish the precedent requiring a two-thirds majority as necessary to a choice. There is only one candidate in the minds of the delegates—Wilson—and this offers a free road to revision of the rules.

Most important also, in the minds of the gossips and hotel lobby debaters, was the platform upon which Democracy will make this year's

SAYS LOSS OF TIME IS GREAT

Health Service Recommends Three Cornered Health Insurance For Laboring Class.

TAKES EUROPE AS EXAMPLE

Average Worker Loses Nine Days a Year on Account of Sickness That Can be Prevented.

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 14.—Twenty-five of every 1,000 employees in American industries are constantly incapacitated by sickness.

The average worker loses about nine days a year on that account. Much of this loss is preventable waste. The waste can be reduced by a system of governmental health insurance.

These are the conclusions reached today by the Public Health Service, after an investigation of working conditions in the United States. This is what the service says about health insurance:

"Any system of health insurance for the United States or for any state should have at its inception of sickness as one of its fundamental purposes.

"This country should profit by the experience of European countries where prevention is being recognized as the central idea necessary to health insurance is to attain its greatest success in improving the health and efficiency of the industrial population.

"The system in this country ought to provide these five things:

"1—Cash benefits and medical service for all wage earners in times of sickness at much less cost than now is possible. Adequate medical relief thus would be placed within the reach of even the lowest paid workers, who are most subject to ill health.

"2—Distribute the cost among employers, employee and the public as the groups responsible for disease-causing conditions; and afford these groups a definite financial incentive for removing these conditions.

"This can be done by means of small weekly payments from employees, supplemented by proportionate contributions from employers and government at a rate reducible in proportion to the reduction of sickness.

"3—Link the co-operative efforts of the three responsible groups with the work of national, state and local health agencies, and utilize these agencies in the administration of the health insurance system.

"4—Afford a better basis for the co-operation of the medical profession with public health agencies.

"5—Eliminate the elements of paternalism and charity-giving by making employers and the public, as well as the employers, joint agents in the control of this fund.

"A governmental system of health insurance," the statement concludes, "can be adopted to American conditions and, when adapted, will prove to be a health measure of extraordinary value."

The Democrats believe they have the "edge" on the Republicans, simply because they will have an opportunity to see what sort of a statement of principles the Chicago convention has enacted, and to meet those principles in the Democratic pledges.

PROBABLE PROGRAM.

Wednesday, June 14.—Formal call to order; organization; speech by National Chairman McCombs.

Thursday, June 15.—"Key-note" speech by Temporary Chairman. Selection of a Presidential nominee.

Friday, June 16.—Selection of a Vice-Presidential candidate. Consideration of platform draft prepared by Resolutions Committee.

Saturday, June 17.—Adoption of a platform and adjournment.

AT HOME IN NEW YORK

(By United Press.)

New York, June 14.—Miss Elsie Ferguson, who is playing with Sir Herbert Tree at the New Amsterdam Theatre, is to be married today to Mr. Thomas B. Clarke, Jr., at the St. Regis Hotel. Their engagement was announced two months ago.

"Are you going to retire from the stage after—well, after next month's happy event?" Miss Ferguson was asked.

"You mean my marriage? Am I going to retire from the stage then? Oh, no, decidedly not," she replied. "I am looking for a play now, preferably a comedy, and I expect to resume my career again in the autumn."

"I said I would not retire after my marriage. I mean not immediately—but I shall not remain on the stage too long."

At the wedding Miss Carroll Brown, of Portland, Me., will attend Miss Ferguson and Mr. Frank L. Polk, of this city and Washington, D. C., Counsellor of the State Department will be Mr. Clarke's best man.

The wedding will be a private one because of the recent bereavement in Mr. Clarke's family. After a trip of two months the couple will occupy an apartment here.

Mr. Clarke is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Clarke.

EARLHAM SPEAKER
PRAISES INDIANA

In Commencement Address Prof.
Paxon Says This State is "Most American."

NOT MANY FOREIGN BORN

(By United Press.)

Richmond, Ind., June 14.—Indiana was described here today as the "most American part of the United States" by Professor Frederick L. Paxson, of the University of Wisconsin, who delivered the commencement address at Earlham college.

"Indiana's population contains an unusually low percentage of the foreign born," said Paxson, "and very few Americans born outside the state. A century ago when the state was being founded its people were still nearly all of American birth. The south, the middle states and the north contributed heavily to the original Indiana population, so that the state started out with representatives of all the best types of American culture."

"In the last forty years Indiana has become the amalgamation of the American sections," said Paxson. "Its elections are the best sample of national elections and when Indiana has accepted an idea its national acceptance is likely."

Paxson, who is president of the Mississippi Valley Historical association, spoke along lines calculated to bring out the Indiana centennial idea.

INDIANS CELEBRATE.

White Earth, Minn., June 14.—The "medicine dance" in its characteristic weird savagery, was held when the 25th anniversary of the settlement of the White Earth reservation here was celebrated. That was 25 years ago today. Evening suits with all their modernism were the order for the forty-ninth annual celebration today. Many representatives of Minnesota Chippewa Indian bands were present.

A first class tire—3500 mile guarantee. 30x3 1/2—$11.00. Gunn Haydon.

SUFFRAGISTS WORKING.

St. Louis, June 14.—Every delegate to the Democratic National Convention, opening today, has a series of white robed satellites trailing him. They are suffragettes—dressed in white, with yellow parasols, arm bands, sashes and caps. The idea is simply to engulf the Democratic hosts with the preponderance of women's desire for the ballot, so the delegates will vote into the national platform a plank approving a suffrage constitutional amendment. It was estimated that there are 8,000 women franchise workers here, and they made things lively in their campaigning by bands, street speeches and dogged pertinacity of their pursuit of delegates.

WHY WOMEN
WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. are continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

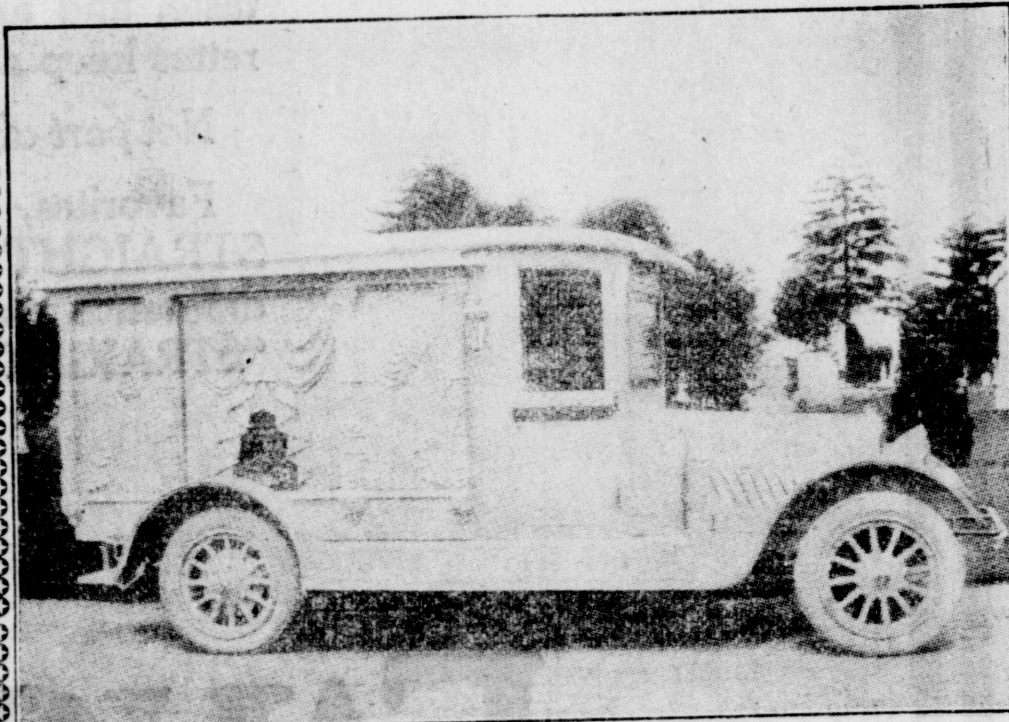

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

Bloomington, Ind., June 14.—Dr. Albert Shaw, of New York, editor of the Review of Reviews, was the speaker today at the annual commencement exercises of Indiana University. The exercises were held in the open-air amphitheatre on the campus, Indiana being one of the few universities in the United States holding her commencement exercises out of doors.

The commencement exercises were preceded by the annual commencement procession across the campus, headed by the University or First Regiment band followed by the faculty and seniors in caps and gowns.

Following the address by Dr. Shaw degrees were conferred by President William Lowe Bryan. Degrees of bachelor of arts, bachelor of laws, master of arts, doctor of medicine, bachelor of science, and doctor of philosophy were conferred.

At noon the annual commencement day luncheon was served in the Student building.

Mrs. Collier Says Could Not Keep House Without Black-Draught.

Hardin, Mo.—Mrs. J. W. Collier, of this town, who knows from experience of the merit of Black-Draught Liver Medicine, has following to say for publication: "I want to let everybody know that I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for many years, and it is just what is claimed for it. I am never without Black-Draught, and really I couldn't keep house without it. Whenever I feel bad, I take a small dose, and feel better right away. I advise everybody who suffers from liver or stomach trouble to use Black-Draught Liver Medicine." For three-quarters of a century (75 years), Thedford's Black-Draught has been regulating irregularities of the liver, stomach and bowels, and has long been recognized as the standard remedy. It is a fixture in thousands of homes as the main stay of the family medicine chest. If you have not tried it, get a package from your nearest dealer, today. He sells it in 25c and $1.00 packages, risking it cost you only one cent a dose.

WOMAN ATTORNEY IS MAKING GOOD

First One Appointed Receives Congratulations From Federal Judge For Her Work.

HANDLES NEUTRALITY CASES

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, June 14.—Mrs. Annette Adams, whose appointment as assistant United States attorney caused excitement in officialdom in Washington and San Francisco, has made good.

While here on a visit, Federal Judge Bledsoe of Los Angeles went out of his way to pay his respects to the federal prosecutor and tell her he was sorry he had opposed her appointment.

"I've got to take off my hat to you," said Judge Bledsoe. "You have made good, and never again will I refuse to endorse a woman in any capacity."

During the bomb plot sensation in San Francisco Mrs. Adams worked all night and prevented an important indictment from being quashed on account of technical errors.

Mrs. Adams is distinctively feminine, not only in her personal mannerisms and attributes, but in her methods of procedure in the courtroom. Her personality gives the austere chambers a "homey" atmosphere. She presents her arguments quietly, but with great fidelity to the essentials.

During the absence of District Attorney Preston, Mrs. Adams directed the affairs of the office without a hitch. Her handling of the U. S. neutrality cases especially won admiration.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

PUBLICITY TO BE DISCUSSED

Sunday Schools at Convention to Give Credit to Newspapers For Aid in Work.

SESSIONS OPEN ON JUNE 20

State Newspapers Are Publishing More News of Schools Than Ever Before, it is Said.

Muncie, Ind., June 14.—Newspapers and other kinds of publicity for Sunday schools will be one of the dominating themes at the convention of the Indiana association here June 20 to 22 inclusive. The Indiana association established a division of publicity two years ago, and its chief work has been to impress upon the school workers throughout the state the importance of advertising, and especially in the judicious use of printers' ink. The state department has endeavored to help them along publicity lines in two ways: By having each county association to establish a department of publicity by finding some trained newspaper man or woman, who would give volunteer service to take charge of it. The other help has been to urge each school to appoint a young man or woman as press representative of the school, this representative to be aided by a publicity committee, the state association mapping out some definite lines of work for the press representatives to follow.

The result has been that newspapers over the state are publishing more news of their home Sunday schools than they ever did before the department was started and the newspapers are having less difficulty in obtaining school news. The first conference on publicity in the history of the Indiana association, and probably the first held in the United States, was that at the convention a year ago, when the conference was attended by more than 200 Sunday School men and women who were anxious to receive ideas on how to advertise their schools. The second conference will be at the Muncie convention. In addition to this session, each department of workers will during the convention hear special discussions on how departmental work may be advertised.

The convention itself is being very widely advertised by the Indiana association from its Indianapolis headquarters. Posters giving the speakers, singers and other features of the convention, have been sent broadcast over Indiana and they are now hanging in practically every Sunday school in Indiana. The association has also sent stamps to its county organizations which are being used on the mail going out to thousands of individual workers. The poster stamp, first used in Sunday school convention publicity last year is now regarded as an effective medium of advertising the annual meeting, being held second in importance to the newspaper.

BOOSTING MOVEMENT.

St. Paul, Minn., June 14.—In a plan of further state development by the co-operation of all organization formed for boosting Minnesota, the All-Minnesota Development association met today in a three days meeting. DETROIT GERMS ARE SCARED STIFF

Driven to Cover When 15,000 Doctors Invade City For American Medical Association Meeting.

IS 67th ANNUAL CONVENTION

(By United Press.)

Detroit, June 14.—Every germ in Detroit was scared stiff today when 15,000 doctors and other medical folk arrived from all over the United States for the 67th annual National Convention of the American Medical Association. This will be one of the largest conventions ever entertained by Detroit.

Meeting simultaneously with the Medical association, the following organizations opened their annual convention today.

American Academy of Medicine; American Protologic society; American Therapeutic society; American Gastrologic society and the American Association of Medical Editors, representing 200 periodicals.

Next Friday more than a thousand of the visiting physicians will go to Ann Arbor on special trains to be the guests of the medical department of the university of Michigan.

HOW CONVENTIONS VOTE.

In the Republican convention, precedent has established that a majority vote is sufficient to nominate. Division of state votes is also permitted by custom.

The Democratic convention is governed by the "two-thirds" vote and that "unit system" that is, two-thirds is necessary to vote, and the votes of individual state delegations must be cast en bloc. This practice dates back to the 1832 convention, when Jackson invented it to force Van Buren's nomination as vice-president on the ticket with him.

JUDGE GETS ALL OF THE CENSURE

Court Will Probably Take up Question of Sheriff Working Prisoners With Governor.

IS BLAMED FOR WHAT HAPPENS

Cavitt Takes Newt. Casey and Police Court Prisoner to His Farm and Works Them All Day.

Numerous complaints have reached Judge Sparks regarding the action of Sheriff Cavitt in permitting Albert Newton Casey, convicted "boot-legger," to run at large while he is supposed to be serving time in the county jail. Casey is permitted to work on the Cavitt farm north of the city and today in company with George Pollock, another prisoner, sentenced from police court for eleven days for plain drunk, spent the day there working, even taking their dinner along so as not to lose any time coming back to the city.

The complaints have become so strong that Judge Sparks will probably take the matter up with Governor Ralston. It is being freely alleged that Cavitt is playing politics with the prisoners. Cavitt, it will be recalled, is the Democratic county chairman and is serving his last term as sheriff. It has been a common sight recently to see the sheriff taking Casey to his farm in his automobile.

Casey is now serving time, or at least is supposed to be serving time, on the original "bootlegging" charge since Governor Ralston revoked his parole. The complaints that have been made are based on the theory that there can be little punishment for Casey when he is not confined to the county jail as the jury directed when it returned a verdict of guilty. Little was thought of this phase of the case when Casey was seen riding with the sheriff in the automobile at first, but since it has become a regular occurrence the complaints have been increasing and the court has received the blunt of the censure, when as a matter of fact it is the sheriff that is taking the liberty and the chances of working Casey.

Pollock, the other prisoner at the Cavitt farm today, was sentenced only Monday of this week. He has eleven days to serve and yesterday was given a chance to escape the sentence. Some men came to his aid and offered to give him five dollars towards the fine, providing Pollock would give the other six dollars. Pollock turned down the proposition and this morning went to work for the sheriff.

Judge Sparks intimated today that he might try and find a way of sending Casey, the prisoner over whom he has jurisdiction, to Connersville, where he knew he would be kept in jail. Judge Sparks is not inclined to see Casey suffer any ill effects from his jail confinement, but does believe that Casey is not receiving the punishment meted out by twelve men in the circuit court. Mayor Bebout is equally opposed to the action of Sheriff Cavitt in taking the prisoners to his farm. Mayor Bebout stated that when he was sheriff it was customary to let the long time prisoners do a little manual labor around the jail, but to take a prisoner out to the country and leave him there all day without any guard and receive the benefit of his work was not believed proper.

It is alleged that through the sheriff the Democrats in Rush county are making a play to this element and hope to get their support at the coming election. Along this line, the Democratic county chairman is known to have gone on the bond of

Progressive Is Great Admirer of President, But That's All.

(By United Press.)
St. Louis, June 14.—William Allen White, one of the inner circle of Progressive leaders, arranged today to see Secretary of the Navy Daniels. He declared, however, it was not with any thought of finding a way for Progressives to join the Democratic party.
"I am not for Wilson," he said. "I admire Mr. Wilson very much but that is as much as I can say."

REMONSTRATORS PERFECT APPEAL

Taxpayers in Washington Township Base Contentment on Commissioners' Refusal of Election.

OTHER CLAIMS ALSO MADE

The Charles L. Smullen et al., road case reached the circuit court today on an appeal from the commissioner's court. This action was predicted following the overruling of the remonstrance and a petition for an election by the commissioners. The road in question is located in Washington township. One of the most important things in the suit and a point on which the legal fight will be based is the question as to whether the commissioners ruled right in refusing to call an election.

The remonstrators maintain that the road sought to be improved is already a free gravel road and the cost of an improvement would be placed against the entire county instead of the township as is proposed to do under the petition. The original petition calls for the paving of the road with concrete for a distance of 3,300 feet. The remonstrators also state that the road does not connect with any other road and the part that is to be improved is a part of the same road.

OWNERSHIP BY THE GOVERNMENT URGED

Chairman of Resolutions Committee Walsh, Advocates Control of Telephone and Telegraph.

GOMPERS BEFORE COMMITTEE

(By United Press.)
St. Louis, June 14.—Government ownership of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines and coal deposits were advocated today for the Democratic platform in a report to the resolutions committee by Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the committee on industrial relations.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, submitted advocacy of organized labor for ownership of telephone and telegraph lines and a far reaching program of economic and industrial reform.

Gompers confined his demands largely to needs of labor. Walsh, however, went further and suggested plans for a better distribution of wealth.

CARAVAN LEAVES FOR SHELBYVILLE

Following Brief Exercises Here, Rushville and Connersville Crowds Depart About Noon

VISITORS' BAND IN CONCERT

A. L. Gary Calls Attention to Spirit of Flag Day and Ned Hawkins of Connersville Replies

The Rushville delegation of business men and Elks in fifteen automobiles, argued by the Connersville delegation in twenty-two machines, formed a caravan that moved from this city, shortly before eleven o'clock this morning, towards Shelbyville where both delegations will participate in the Elks Flag Day celebration and the Sixth District Business Men's association meeting.

The Connersville delegation arrived here on scheduled time and was greeted by the Rushville merchants. The Commercial Club band accompanied the Connersville party and marched through the streets of the city. The band attracted much attention and rendered some very fine music. The band for the most part is made up of boys.

The local Flag Day exercises were held on the steps at the north entrance to the court house. A. L. Gary, local attorney, presided and in a brief address described the purpose of the day. The business men's organization here provided flags for everyone.

Mr. Gary stated that it was well that we set aside a day to pay tribute to the flag of the greatest country on earth. "Our flag is the emblem of our country and it is our patriotic duty to pay tribute to it," said Mr. Gary. "It has been to fight, but I hope we are not if the said that perhaps we are too proud time ever comes to follow our flag in the needs of our country."

Ned Hawkins, president of the Connersville Commercial Club responded. Mr. Hawkins stated that the real purpose of the Connersville delegation was to boost their centennial celebration to be held on July 3, 4 and 5. Mr. Hawkins told if the preparations that city was making for the celebration and invited the people of Rushville and Rush county to visit in Connersville on these dates.

"On the opening night," said Mr. Hawkins "your fellowtownsmen, James E. Watson will deliver an address. We invite you to come over and hear Mr. Watson, because you see we have come to Rushville to get our oratory."

The day's events at Shelbyville will close tonight with a banquet given by the Chamber of Commerce to the business men of the district. The Rushville delegation was to be augmented to several machine loads this afternoon.

8,000 PERSONS SEE PAGEANT

Crawfordsville, Ind., June 14.—The Crawfordville state centennial pageant, which was held Tuesday afternoon in a field south of this city, attracted about 8,000 persons. The production lasted almost four hours. Its six episodes told the history of the colony from the earliest period. More than 500 persons were in the cast, which was directed by Prof. D. D. Hains and Frank McGeath. The pageant was presented again today.

W.R.C. PRESENTS FLAG TO COURT

In Presentation Speech Miss Lily Armstrong Says Respect For Emblem Has Increased.

JUDGE W. M. SPARKS ACCEPTS

Declares Patriotism Does Not Mean Noise But Loyalty to Fundamental Principles of Government.

With appropriate exercises and unbounded patriotism the Woman's Relief Corps presented a large American flag to the Rush Circuit Court this afternoon as a part of the Flag day exercises held in the assembly room of the court house.

The flag is a large one and will be draped on the wall back of the judge's bench in the court room. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Lily Armstrong of Missouri, formerly of this city, and was accepted in behalf of the Rush County Bar association by Judge Will M. Sparks.

Mrs. Armstrong, in presenting the flag to the court, stated that some fifteen or twenty years ago the W. R. C. strongly advocated the teaching of patriotism in the public schools, and asked that flags be displayed from school buildings. "I recall," said Mrs. Armstrong, "that on one occasion a teachers' institute was asked to endorse the idea and see that flags were displayed from the school buildings. The reply came back to us, 'We are too busy.'"

"I am very thankful that times have changed and now we are taking a greater interest in our flag. We thought for a time that our flag would not be safe in the hands of so many foreigners who were coming to this country. Uncle Sam was easy for a long time in letting in many undesirable, but now this has been righted. We know Rush county is loyal to the flag and we do not doubt Judge Sparks' loyalty to the flag and the old soldiers. Our flag will be safe in his hands. We want a flag in every public place and believe that the Rush county court room should have this emblem."

In accepting the flag Judge Sparks said that he believed the gift would be an incentive to the court, the bar and the prisoner at the bar. Judge Sparks said that the people some times lose sight of the meaning of patriotism and that it is up to the people to teach the children the real meaning of the word.

"Patriotism," said Judge Sparks, "does not mean noise, but loyalty to the principles upon which this government is based. Patriotism means being true to your Christian ideals." Judge Sparks stated it was a shame that Decoration Day was being neglected more and more each year. He pointed out that there might come a time when our patriotism would be aroused and when this time came the cemetery on Decoration Day would be crowded with people. "Let us take the time and teach our children the meaning of patriotism that they may have reverence for the flag. Patriotism means not only being protected by our flag, but protecting the flag."

The program was given as originally planned. Charlotte Norris' Sunday school class gave a song and Mrs. Selman Webb spoke on the subject, "What Our Work Is, And What We Do." Miss Glen Ross of Andersonville sang a solo.

GRAND JURY WILL REPORT NEXT WEEK

Ordered to Sit on Next Wednesday, But Nature of its Investigations Are Not Divulged.

ELIJAH HANKINS WINS SUIT

The grand jury has been ordered to report next Wednesday. This will be the first meeting of the grand jury this term of court. The session of the grand jury is said to involve some important matters, but the exact nature could not be learned. The case set for today, that of James W. Gartin against the C. I. & W. railway was continued until June 30. The suit is for damages demanding $1,000 and is based on an automobile accident at the Main street crossing of the railway.

Judge Sparks found for the defendant, Elijah Hankins in the suit brought against Hankins by H. G. Hackman supplemental to execution. Hackman obtained a judgment against Hankins some time ago, but was not able to satisfy this by an execution and the suit tried yesterday was an attempt to find out if Hankins was concealing some property.

WILSON'S NAME LOUDLY CHEERED

Mention of President by Ex-Governor Glynn Sends Democratic Convention on Demonstration

IS APPLAUDED 15 MINUTES

Three-Day Session, to Result in Wilson's and Marshall's Nomination Begins at 12:31

(By United Press.)
Coliseum, St. Louis, June 14.—The mentioning of President Wilson's name by Ex-Governor Glynn in his keynote address sent the Democratic national convention on its first demonstration. The delegates yelled, applauded and waved flags for fifteen minutes.

Chairman William McCombs pounded sharply with his gavel at 12:31 today and the Democratic convention started on its three-day session which will end in the nomination of Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey and Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana for president and vice-president of the United States respectively.

The big coliseum was crowded long before noon, the hour set for the convention to convene. Delegates, after running the gauntlet of the silent suffragists who stretched in long lines away from the convention hall doors, arrived early.

The "big guns" of the convention were late in arriving and the delegates and spectators sweltered in the sultry air of the coliseum. William Jennings Bryan was given an ovation, press ticket and large fan in hand.

Following the call to order, the convention arose and sang "America." Frequent applause greeted the opening address by Chairman McCombs. The convention call was read and amid applause the temporary role of the convention was adopted, with Ex-Governor Glynn of New York at temporary chairman.

Something more than 8,000 persons assembled here at noon today to waste time and speak and listen to speeches for three days before they do the one thing for which they have been chosen. In other words the Democratic national convention was called to order by National Chairman McCombs and started on its oratorical way towards the nomination of President Wilson and Vice-president Marshall.

Because of the very fact that the work of the convention is so pre-functory there was growing sentiment today among the delegates that its work will be hurried along. There may be an attempt to advance the date of the nomination instead of waiting until after midnight Friday to put through the national ticket. The program for today's session was purely routine. First came the address of Chairman McCombs. Then Former Governor Glynn was introduced for his keynote speech. After arranging a few details of organization, the convention was to adjourn until Thursday.

WAR HITS PERFUME

Paris, June 14.—Perisian perfumers are soon to be hard hit; and likewise is Milday's bondior.

Riviera advices complain that there is not sufficient labor to gather the orange blossoms, hence Milday will soon find the trusty atomizer lacking those favorite and world-known scents a la Fraebais.

Female labor, which the perfume distillers hoped to enlist has not been found and it is declared now almost too late to save the situation. In addition, the scent makers are handicapped by lack of water due to the blocking of the Sangu Canal, especially constructed to supply the distilleries.

The scope of the Riviera perfume industry is shown by the fact that there are 1600 members of the Orange Flower Growers Association, most of whom will suffer heavy financial losses on account of the war labor and water shortage.

TO GET MEN FOR TRAINING CAMP

Circulars Setting Forth Object, Instruction and Other Matters Sent Here

FIRST ONE OPENS JULY 5

Although no One From Here Expects to Enroll, Number Expected to Visit Ft. Harrison

Circulars have been received here setting forth the object, organization, course of instruction, enrollment and other matters of interest concerning the military training camp which will open at Fort Benjamin Harrison, ten mile from Indianapolis, July 5 and will continue until August 4. A second camp will be held from August 7 to September 6. The third, to have been held from September 8 to October 3, has just been called off.

So far as is known, no one from here will enlist in the camp, but there is considerable interest in the coming events. Although many men have the desire to take a month's work out at one of the camps, they do not have that much time for a vacation. In addition, it will cost each man who enrolls $25 for camp expenses. Many people have planned to visit one of the camps and witness the military tactics.

Captain Bruce Barrett of the regular army, stationed at the headquarters of the central department in Chicago, will visit Indiana cities and towns in the interest of the camps, and will likely be in Rushville some time before the opening of the first camp.

It was the original intention that the enrollment for each camp be limited to 1,000 men, as it was believed that instructors could not be obtained to take care of more than this number. Because of the number of applications, however, this limit has been removed. The camp organization will consist of a commanding officer, an adjutant, a quartermaster, an assistant to the quartermaster, and a surgeon.

The training companies will consist of 100 to 150 men, according to the number enrolled. To each company will be assigned one regular army officer, commanding, and so far as practicable, one officer as assistant.

The noncommissioned officers will consist of those citizens who have had previous experience, either in the regular army or with the militia or military schools and colleges. Of these, there will be a first sergeant, two quartermaster sergeants, two mess sergeants, five sergeants and ten corporals. If they prove fit, sergeants will be permanently appointed. Corporals will be changed frequently to do what they can to instruct squads. From these corporals selection will be made of sergeants. Corporals will be appointed by company commanders and sergeants by the camp commander.

The cooks are to be enrolled as other men, so as to keep them under discipline. There will be ordered from the Ft. Riley School of Cooks one sergeant as chief instructor, who will take general charge of the cooking establishment. One hundred bills of fare used at the Ft. Sheridan camp last year will be provided to use as samples. A sergeant will have charge of the bakery.

According to the present plans, a detachment of the Thirtieth cavalry, stationed at Ft. Riley, will be sent to the camp. It is also planned to send company No. 1 of the field hospital corps, and company No. 1 of the ambulance corps, from Ft. D. A. Russell. Thirty-nine soldiers will be sent from Ft. Riley and ninety-two soldiers from Ft. D. A. Russell.

Colonel B. A. Frederick recommended that the third camp, now slated to begin September 8 and continue until October 5, be called off, as instructors will not be available at that time. The war department followed this recommendation and there will be only two camps, one opening July 5, and one August 7.

"CABIRIA"

The last word in motion photographic art comes to the

MYSTIC
Friday, June 16

Gabriele D'Annunzio, who is unquestionably Italy's foremost dramatist, wrote and personally staged the photo spectacle, "CABIRIA." Experts in motion photography predict a new epoch with the introduction of this remarkable film, which is a historical vision of the third century B. C., immediately after the close of the first Punic war. It has never been equalled for regal splendor and barbaric magnificence. Its cast is composed of the best known players of Rome and the ensembles, mobs and armies number over seven thousand people.

D'Annunzio has taken as a basis of this story the strife between Carthage and the Romans, at the time Hannibal took command of the Carthaginian forces, and surprised his antagonists by crossing the Alps with his army. The romance of "CABIRIA" is fictional, but the action and main facts, historical. "Cabiria" the title is the principal character of the scenario. The name means "one rescued from the flames" and Cabiria, an infant child, taken prisoner during the eruption of Mt. Etna, is sold into slavery. The high Priest of the Temple of Moloch was the purchaser and the infant is kept with others until the time arrives for her to be sacrificed to Moloch, whom the Carthaginians worshipped as the God of Fire. She is saved by a young Roman, "Fulvius," and her experiences and sensational escape with the assistance of a veritable Hercules, form the nucleus of the plot. 1200 scenes, a cast of 7,000 characters, herds of elephants and camels—a $250,000 production.

MORE RACES ARE PUT ON PROGRAM

Three Are Added by Rush County Association, Two Running Events and Other a Trot

MUCH MONEY IN RACE PROGRAM

Free Night Fair This Year is Expected to Attract Large Crowd
—Turnstiles to be Added

An additional three races have been announced for the Rush County Fair program. The three races include two running races and a 2:24 trot. The running races will be given on Wednesday and Friday and the trot will be added to the Thursday afternoon program. The purses for the running races are $50 for the Wednesday race and $75 for the Friday event while the 2:24 trot will be worth $150.

The fair association this year is placing most of its money in the race program, which promises to be the best in years. Little money will be spent for free attractions and other features. The money that would have gone towards these features will be placed in the race program, thus practically assuring the best racing in years.

With the added race for Thursday the card for this day will contain a total of four purse races including the 2:40 pace, 2:16 trot, 2:25 pace and the 2:24 trot. This program should furnish plenty of sport for the lovers of light harness events.

It was also announced that the night fair this year would be a free event. Heretofore an admission has been charged for the night fair and by making the event free it should be a success this year.

Another new feature this year will be the installing of turnstiles at the railway gates. The old system will prevail at the other gates. The concession privileges are being taken rapidly and it was stated that this year's event would see many added features on the grounds.

ductions at Bayreuth also will be heard in Indianapolis for the first time. Many of the artists in this cast are familiar to the concert going public, but Ona B. Talbot has been fortunate in securing the production of this opera with an All-star cast in Indianapolis. This will be known as a pilgrimage to the shrine of Richard Wagner's work and all who are interested in the development of Music in the State of Indiana should make a special effort to be present for the success of this undertaking. Every convenience has been arranged at the Coliseum Fair Grounds Indianapolis for the patrons who wish to attend this performance. Cars may be parked where special attention will be given to protect them, for a fee of fifty cents within the Fair Ground. The gates to the grounds will be opened at 5 o'clock for those who motor to Indianapolis if they wish to come directly to the grounds where a Buffet Luncheon will be served, or if one wishes to bring their own luncheon they may do so. All orders should be mailed to Ona B. Talbot Office #16 Hume Mansur Bldg. accompanied by a self addressed stamped envelope for return of tickets.

In February, the Metropolitan Opera House in New York held a capacity audience in response to the announcement that Madam Schumann-Heink would sing the role of Erda in "Siegfried." It was the first time in thirteen years that the greatest living Wagnerian singer had appeared on those boards, and the opera loving public was eager to welcome its favorite prima donna and shower upon her applause such as is rarely heard even in that famous auditorium. The day following, critics and public alike talked of the event.

W. J. Henderson in the New York Sun wrote, "The house was crowded and there were as many standing as if the only Caruso had been cast for the title role. Ernestine Schumann-Heink reappeared at the opera house in "Siegfried" and once more sang Erda as it is only simple justice to say, only she can."

Makes Auto Demand.

One hundred and sixty-five million dollars worth of automobiles and parts, engines and tires, were exported from this country during the first 19 months of the European war, August, 1914 to February, 1916, inclusive, easily 80 per cent. of which went to the belligerents. Our normal exports of these articles run about $35,000,000 annually, although there was a falling off in their value just prior to the outbreak of the war. During the calendar year 1915 England took more than our total normal export of these products. A large percentage of the total consisted of commercial automobiles, or trucks, etc.

No single factor is of more importance in conducting modern warfare than that of sufficient and quick transportation. How many defeats have been directly attributable to the fact that supplies were delayed for last of carriage facilities? No sooner was the European war declared than every motor car available was commandeered, the owner given a receipt, and his car pressed into service. An American army officer who returned from Europe some time ago estimated the average life of a car operated behind the lines at from 10 to 20 days. The first three products sought by the belligerents from the United States were breadstuffs, horses, and automobiles, and a steady stream of those commodities has been flowing to Europe since the war began.

But the prosperity which war orders for automobiles has brought to Detroit, for instance, is by no means confined to that city. It is distributed in countless ways. From the man who works out the ore in the ground to the boy who packs the grease in the clutch, every employee engaged in turning out the finished product, on part, reaps a benefit from Europe's unfortunate quarrel. Steel, leather, rubber, copper, glass—a score of products go into the manufacture of these cars, and all supply a profit to someone. And the profits and the wages are invested, or hoarded, or spun on the counters of the merchant. Charlie Chaplin gets a chunk of it; Billy Sunday gets a bit. Consider the number of times a dollar changes hands, and multiply that by 165,000,000. And then you have considered but one commodity which is going to Europe from this country, though we have sent billions of dollars worth of goods there to be used in conducting the war.

This is the sort of "unexampled prosperity" of which the Democratic party boasts, and on which it will go to the country in the coming campaign. But the people of the United States have a high contempt for a party whose chief argument for a continuance in power is bed-rocked on the murder of millions of mankind.

We can imagine no more distressing sight than to see a beautiful complexion disappearing with the perspiration on a hot summer day.

When a fellow abems and fidgets and squirms he is generally getting ready to say nothing or tell a whopper.

Having failed in his announced determination to kick the American army out of Mexico, the only remaining thing now for Obregon to do is to kick some sense into Carranza.

It begins to look as though the crowned heads of Europe had grabbed a great big bear by the tail and don't know how to let go.

Perhaps, though, those border raids are just neighborly calls from our dear friends on the other side.

Jordan may be a hard river to cross, but not so the Rio Grande.

Sympathetically, you know, we might remark that a few "favorite sons" appear to be anything except favorites.

General Carranza continues to insist that we get out of Mexico. But in the end, probably, he will get out himself.

This war will certainly have a unique place in history. It is creating more widows than heroes.

Some men, like the cinder in your eye, are remembered chiefly for the smart they leave behind.

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

Robert Dale Owen.

With the history of the community settlement at New Harmony is inseparably linked the name of Robert Dale Owen, one of Indiana's foremost pioneers. Born in Glasgow Scotland, November 7, 1801, educated in Switzerland, Owen immigrated to America and as the leader of the community movement moved to New Harmony in 1825.

As a member of the state legislature of 1836 Owen introduced a bill granting women the right to own and control property. He served two terms in Congress but his greatest service was in the constitutional convention where he was among the ablest members.

Owen was an active supporter of the Union during the Civil War, wrote tracts, purchased arms for the state troops, and wrote to Lincoln urging emancipation. He died in 1877.

Pork Versus Patriotism (San Antonio Light.)

Just at present the Fourteenth Texas congressional district is being flooded with copies of an address delivered in the national house of representatives by Clyde H. Tavenner of Illinois. These pamphlets are being sent through the mails by the personal frank of James L. Slayden, and there is about a ton of them in weight.

Mr. Tavenner has all along been a strong opponent of preparedness. He says the people cannot permit that their money shall be wasted in that way. He further declares that it is the duty of congressmen to see that the funds of the people are not frittered away, and he still further poses and says that preparedness against war is an utter and complete waste of public funds.

Now this same Mr. Tavenner has asked congress to appropriate $50,000 for a postoffice in a certain town in his district. The town has a population of 2,000, and Mr. Tavenner, who is so solicitous of the public funds, wants only about $25 out of the public funds which it is per head for the people of that town the sworn duty of congressmen to so sacredly guard.

Giving San Antonio a population of 125,000—she has more than that, but takes the minimum number which Dallas and Houston will give us—and see what sort of a postoffice we should ask for on the same basis. All we would get would be a public building costing $3,125,000 which will supply the postal needs to San Antonio for many years to come.

And the people of the United States are asked to pay this money to assist in securing the return to congress of a man who will not even do as much for them as to attempt to insure them against the evils and horrors of war.

Truly a great patriot is this Tavenner. Give him all he wants and the remainder of the people of the United States may go to destruction.

DEFENDS THE WILSON REGIME

Martin H. Glynn Delivers Keynote at Opening of Democratic National Convention

PARTY IS PROUD OF ITS PAST

Former Governor of New York Confines His Speech Largely to Defense of Administration

(By United Press.)
St. Louis, June 14.—Confining himself almost entirely to a defense of the acts of the Wilson administration, Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, delivered the keynote address at the opening of the Democratic national convention here today. He spoke in part as follows:

The Democratic party, in this convention assembled, meets to perform a duty, not to itself, but to the nation. Proud of the part it has played in the nation's past, the party of Jefferson and of Jackson is gathered here to dedicate itself anew to the preservation of a free, a united, a sovereign republic.

We are proud of the battles we have fought in the past under the emblem of a great political party, but there is a truth that we desire to blazon above all that we may say or do in this convention. . . .

When a hundred years look back upon this gathering of today, when we who now guard the ark of American covenant have become nothing but a memory and a name, the principles for which we declare in this convention, the issues for which we fight in this campaign will live in the lives of generations of Americans yet unborn.

If in the great crisis that now confronts the nation, the American people falter, if they forget that they are guardians of the most sacred trust that a people ever held, their apostasy will be visited upon the descendants of their children's children. . . .

One hundred and forty years ago the manhood of America was called upon to decide whether this should be a nation. Half a century ago Americans were forced to determine whether this should continue to be a nation. Today the Republic faces a third crisis no less momentous than that of 1776 or that 1860. Today Americans must again determine whether this country shall preserve its national ideals, whether it shall have a national soul, whether it shall stand forth as a mighty and undivided force, whether the United States for which Washington fought and for which Lincoln died shall hold its place among the nations. . . .

What the people of the United States must determine through their suffrage is whether the course the country has pursued through this crucial period is to be continued; whether the principles that have been asserted as our national policy shall be endorsed or withdrawn.

This is the paramount issue. No lesser issue must cloud it, no unrelated problems must confuse it. . . .

"To maintain our national honor by peace if we can, by war if we must," is the motto of the President of the United States.

But before submitting to the chance and misery of war, true statesman that he is, he proposes to put the reason and justice of negotiation to the test. If they are as patriotic as they pretend those who censure this policy of negotiation may blush from shame to learn that they censure the policy pursued by the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

In the document which made us free John Hancock and Benjamin Franklin and Charles Carroll and all the other signers declare (I quote their exact words), they declare they "appealed," they declare they "conjured," they declare they "warned," they declare they "reminded," England of our wrongs before we went to war.

Any one can disparage diplomatic procedure, but only men of patience and principle can successfully conduct it. . . .

But, say our critics, this policy satisfies no one.

They mean it does not satisfy those who would map out a new and untried course for this nation to pursue, but they forget it does satisfy those who believe the United States should live up to the principles it has professed for a century and more.

Chief Justice White of the United States Supreme Court, says this policy has given America the greatest diplomatic victory of the past generation. Maximilian Harden, Germany's noted editor, says "that never once has this republic violated its neutrality," and Gilbert K. Chesterton, the famous English journalist, says, "it is the duty of the President of the United States to protect the interests of the people of the United States," that "he can't dip his country into hell just to show the world he has a keen sense of being an individual saviour." . . .

But I cannot close this brief and inadequate review of what the present administration has accomplished without advertising to its courageous and statesmanlike solution of the nation's tariff problem.

The Underwood tariff enacted by this administration has banished greed from the gates of our ports and written justice into our tariff schedules.

Of all the tariffs we have enacted this is the fairest and the best.

Until the foreign war reduced importations no new tariff was ever more satisfactory. The highest protective tariff ever written would probably have given us no more revenue during this European war and a higher tariff on raw material would have hampered our manufacturers, a higher tariff on the necessities of life would have placed a woeful burden on the poor man in the conditions which the war abroad has brought about.

By the Underwood law this administration has taken the tariff out of politics; by the new Tariff Commission it proposes to take politics out of the tariff.

The consumers of the nation, and this means every man, woman and child within its borders, have been freed from an unique and oppressive system which enriched the few at the expense of the many.

It is not my purpose to discuss the assaults that special privileges have made upon the provisions of the Underwood act. These selfish and unfounded criticisms have been completely answered by one who is amply competent to judge and public-spirited enough to speak. Democracy's reply to those who would overthrow the tariff law that a Democratic Congress has enacted is the reply of that eminent banker, that financial genius, Mr. Jacob H. Schiff.

A familiar burden in many homes. The burden of a "bad back." A lame, a weak or an aching back. Often tells you of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is Rushville testimony. Mrs. Jacob Roth, 820 N. Perkins St., Rushville, says: Doan's Kidney Pills have been used time and time again by different ones of the family and they have never failed to give perfect satisfaction. For rheumatic pains, kidney and bladder trouble, I know that Doan's Kidney Pills can be relied upon to bring almost immediate relief. I have such faith in this medicine that I never fail to speak a good word for it, whenever I hear anyone complaining of kidney trouble." (Statement given March 9, 1910.)

On Aug. 26, 1915, Mrs. Roth said: "In my opinion there is nothing better for the kidneys than Doan's Kidney Pills. I keep them in the home all the time, even though they are seldom needed. I think that they were the means of keeping one of the family alive and not only that, but I have used them with great success myself."

The ceremony room was a profusion of pink roses, marnegrites and Southern smilax. The altar was a bank of Southern palms and roses.

The bride never looked more beautiful. She was dressed in a handsome cream taffeta, trimmed elaborately in oriental lace, and wore a veil, made cap effect and trimmed in orange blossoms and also with lace which was on her mother's wedding dress. She carried a shower bouquet of Sweet-heart roses and lilies of the valley. Her going away suit was black and white and she wore a chic hat. The groom wore the conventional black.

The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Green, of Manila, and is an industrious young man of excellent character. He is a member of the S. A. E. fraternity and a graduate of the Southern Military School at Sewanna, Tenn.

SOCIETY GIVEN BIG SURPRISE

Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton and Police Commissioner Woods Married Today.

WAS REGARDED AS BACHELOR

Bride is Granddaughter of Late J. P. Morgan and Descendant of Alexander Hamilton.

(By United Press.)

Sterling, N. Y., June 14.—Society was taken completely by surprise by the news that Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pierson Hamilton, granddaughter of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, and great-granddaughter of Alexander Hamilton, is to become the bride of Police Commissioner Arthur Woods. She was a favorite of the financier and was at his bedside when he died in Rome on March 31, 1913.

Miss Hamilton and Mr. Woods were married here today. Bishop Rhinelander of Philadelphia, an uncle of the bride, officiating.

Friends of Mr. Woods, both in public and private life, had come to regard him as a confirmed bachelor. Even those closest to him in the affairs of the great department of which he is the head had no hint that he ever thought of romance as they went about the unsentimental business of the department together. Miss Hamilton was introduced to society a year and a half ago. She stepped immediately into the front ranks of the young set in society. She became a member of the Colony Club and joined the Junior League.

Through her father and mother she is descended from well known American families that have been identified with public life for many generations. Her mother, who was Miss Juliet P. Morgan, is one of the four children of the late, financier and philanthropist, the others being Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee and Miss Anne T. Morgan.

Mr. Woods, after having been Mayor Mitchell's private secretary for three months, was designated Police Commissioner in 1914.

The Commissioner is forty-three years old. In 1892 he was graduated from Harvard.

Before that date he had decided to find a career in public life. His first opportunity came in 1905, when he went to the Philippines in the party with Mr. William Howard Taft, then Secretary of War.

REPORTER WITH BOIL MAKES A DISCOVERY

BY WILBUR S. FORREST.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
London, June 1.—(By Mail).—The strain of twenty months of war on the composite brain of a nation showed today that common, ordinary bandage is the new insignia of sympathy.

Just like the sight of shamrock flashes to the brain of an individual that it's St. Patrick's day, the sight of bandage tells the average Britisher that he should be sympathetic. To have on your finger a semi-circular furuncle (which is an overzealous boil) is to wear your arm in a sling. This means a liberal display of bandage.

Walking along a crowded London thoroughfare with your arm in a sling transforms you from an able bodied slacker to a hero just back from the front.

A uniform isn't necessary. The sympathetic "composite war brain" overlooks all that is lacking. You have been wounded and it can readily be seen that you are tired of wearing your uniform and you are anyhow.

Old ladies beam on you in trams, modest about attracting attention buses and subways.

You are petted and pampered by conductors who hold their vehicle while you get safely seated.

Men on the street who wear the Derby armet look sheepish when you pass. Barbers take special care not to jostle your "wounded" arm. Waitresses and waiters sympathetically carve your meat.

Ushers in theatres follow you to your seat and take your things back to the cloak room.

Shop clerks tie up your bundles with a special loop of string so you can hook it over an unwounded finger.

Traffic "Bobbies" occasionally salute.

Everybody has your number. You are a wounded soldier, except:

When you are an American reporter with a boil on your finger.

In 1907 he left the Police Department with Commissioner Bingham and passed some time in Mexico, remaining out of public life until 1912.

Commissioner Woods lives at the Harvard Club. He also is a member of the Racquet and Tennis Club.

PARADE OF SUFFS TWO MILES LONG

Stage Pageant in St. Louis in Hopes of Impressing Democrats Attending Convention.

MANY SPEECHES TO BE MADE

(By United Press.)

St. Louis, June 14.—Thousands of American suffragists here today to impress the Democratic convention, stood in a silent line from the Hotel Jefferson to the Coliseum, almost two miles, as a plea for a suffrage plank to the Democratic platform.

A concentrated battery of 5,000 pairs of feminine eyes was turned upon the delegates to the Democratic national convention today in an appeal of "votes for women."

The attack, staged by the National Woman's Suffrage organization, headed by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, was the most spectacular event of the suffrage campaign before the convention. Five thousand women, voiceless, motionless, with steady gaze for two hours, tried to stare a supposedly somewhat unfriendly national convention out of countenance and into an attitude of meek receptivity.

The "Golden Lane" so-called because of the garb of the women—white suits draped with yellow sashes—was under the direction of the Equal Suffrage League of Missouri.

The delegates and visitors from the Jefferson will be forced to ride through this lane if they go via automobile or chose to walk up St. Louis' Downtown Automobile "road."

Speech making tours of the various state delegation headquarters will be made by the women during the convention.

There are ten women delegates to the democratic convention from five states.

AGREED FIRST TIME IN YEARS

Democrats Open Convention in St. Louis Without Any Doubt About Nominee

BALTIMORE IS RECALLED

Bitter Factional Strife of Four Years Ago Will Not Strike Discordant Note This Time.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
BY PERRY ARNOLD.

St. Louis, June 14.—For the first time in decades, Democracy's hosts met in quadrennial session today with complete agreement on the choice of national standard bearer.

There wasn't a delegate who didn't agree to the renomination of President Woodrow Wilson.

The bitterness of the factional strife at Baltimore four years ago was gone. Advance indications were for a regular "love feast" with the only possibilities for any difference of opinion present in the building of a platform.

It was a cheerful, optimistic, cheering and confident throng that responded to the bang of National Chairman William F. McCombs' gavel. No specter of an interneine fight intruded.

First of all, the delegates were meeting in Missouri one of whose favorite sons four years ago was a defeated candidate in the battle of the ballots.

That same favorite son—Speaker Champ Clark—as if to emphasize the healing of the wounds dealt him by the Baltimore gathering, was one of the loudest in his praises of the men who took from him the honor of leading the Democratic hosts.

"I believe the convention can adjourn by Friday, if it so desires," Chairman McCombs said just before convening the assembly.

The delegates, themselves however, indicated early in the meeting their desires to hear "glorification" speeches and this excess of enthusiasm was expected to prolong the convention until Saturday morning.

St. Louis began playing the host to the visiting thousands in royal fashion. Non-partisan committees galore, whose interest and energy was bent solely toward making visitors comfortable and happy, were constantly in attendance.

The convention is St. Louis' first chance since the Louisiana Purchase Exposition of 1904 to entertain distinguished guests, and St. Louisans were determined to make the occasion a memorable one.

The convention hall itself had been repainted throughout, mostly with white paint so that every possible bit of light was reflected into its gigantic interior.

Special ventilating apparatus cooled the sultry air. Delegates and alternates alone were permitted on the ground floor, permitting more comfortable seating space for the men who actually do the convention work.

One topic which was eagerly discussed by the crowds in the streets and hotel lobbies was the so-called "unit rule" and "two thirds" regulation which from time immemorial has ruled at Democratic conclaves.

There was general belief expressed that the regular quadrennial attempt to overthrow these ancient rules would succeed this year.

Delegates recalled that the attempt was made four years ago in Baltimore and defeated mainly because there was such bitter strife between the candidates. If the two-thirds rule had not been in effect at Baltimore, Champ Clark, Missouri's favorite son, would have been named.

This year, it was conceded, will be an excellent opportunity for the Democratic party to abolish the precedent requiring a two-thirds majority as necessary to a choice. There is only one candidate in the minds of the delegates—Wilson—and this offers a free road to revision of the rules.

Most important also, in the minds of the gossipers and hotel lobby debaters, was the platform upon which Democracy will make this year's

SAYS LOSS OF TIME IS GREAT

Health Service Recommends Three Cornered Health Insurance For Laboring Class.

TAKES EUROPE AS EXAMPLE

Average Worker Loses Nine Days a Year on Account of Sickness That Can be Prevented.

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 14.—Twenty-five of every 1,000 employees in American industries are constantly incapacitated by sickness.

The average worker loses about nine days a year on that account.

Much of this loss is preventable waste. The waste can be reduced by a system of governmental health insurance.

These are the conclusions reached today by the Public Health Service, after an investigation of working conditions in the United States. This is what the services says about health insurance:

"Any system of health insurance for the United States or for any state should have at its inception of sickness as one of its fundamental purposes.

"This country should profit by the experience of European countries where prevention is being recognized as the central idea necessary to health insurance is to attain its greatest success in improving the health and efficiency of the industrial population.

"The system in this country ought to provide these five things:

"1—Cash benefits and medical service for all wage earners in times of sickness at much less cost than now is possible. Adequate medical relief thus would be placed within the reach of even the lowest paid workers, who are most subject to ill health.

"2—Distribute the cost among employers, employee and the public as the groups responsible for disease-causing conditions; and afford these groups a definite financial incentive for removing these conditions.

"This can be done by means of small weekly payments from employees, supplemented by proportionate contributions from employers and government at a rate reducible in proportion to the reduction of sickness.

"3—Link the co-operative efforts of the three responsible groups with the work of national, state and local health agencies, and utilize these agencies in the administration of the health insurance system.

"4—Afford a better basis for the co-operation of the medical profession with public health agencies.

"5—Eliminate the elements of paternalism and charity-giving by making employees and the public, as well as the employers, joint agents in the control of this fund.

"A governmental system of health insurance," the statement concludes, "can be adopted to American conditions and, when adapted, will prove to be a health measure of extraordinary value."

The Democrats believe they have the "edge" on the Republicans, simply because they will have an opportunity to see what sort of a statement of principles the Chicago convention has enacted; and to meet those principles in the Democratic pledges.

PROBABLE PROGRAM.

Wednesday, June 14.—Formal call to order; organization; speech by National Chairman McCombs.

Thursday, June 15.—"Key-note" speech by Temporary Chairman. Selection of a Presidential nominee.

Friday, June 16.—Selection of a Vice-Presidential candidate. Consideration of platform draft prepared by Resolutions Committee.

Saturday, June 17.—Adoption of a platform and adjournment.

(By United Press.) New York, June 14.—Miss Elsie Ferguson, who is playing with Sir Herbert Tree at the New Amsterdam Theatre, is to be married today to Mr. Thomas B. Clarke, Jr., at the St. Regis Hotel. Their engagement was announced two months ago.

"Are you going to retire from the stage after—well, after next month's happy event?" Miss Ferguson was asked.

"You mean my marriage? Am I going to retire from the stage then? Oh, no, decidedly not," she replied. "I am looking for a play now, preferably a comedy, and I expect to resume my career again in the autumn."

"I said I would not retire after my marriage. I mean not immediately—but I shall not remain on the stage too long."

At the wedding Miss Carroll Brown, of Portland, Me., will attend Miss Ferguson and Mr. Frank L. Polk, of this city and Washington, D. C., Counsellor of the State Department will be Mr. Clarke's best man.

The wedding will be a private one because of the recent bereavement in Mr. Clarke's family. After a trip of two months the couple will occupy an apartment here.

Mr. Clarke is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Clarke.

EARLHAM SPEAKER PRAISES INDIANA

In Commencement Address Prof. Paxson Says This State is "Most American."

NOT MANY FOREIGN BORN

(By United Press.) Richmond, Ind., June 14.—Indiana was described here today as the "most American part of the United States" by Professor Frederick L. Paxson, of the University of Wisconsin, who delivered the commencement address at Earlham college.

"Indiana's population contains an unusually low percentage of the foreign born," said Paxson, "and very few Americans born outside the state. A century ago when the state was being founded its people were still nearly all of American birth. The south, the middle states and the north contributed heavily to the original Indiana population, so that the state started out with representatives of all the best types of American culture."

"In the last forty years Indiana has become the amalgamation of the American sections," said Paxson. "Its elections are the best sample of national elections and when Indiana has accepted an idea its national acceptance is likely."

Paxson, who is president of the Mississippi Valley Historical association, spoke along lines calculated to bring out the Indiana centennial idea.

INDIANS CELEBRATE.

White Earth, Minn., June 14.—The "medicine dance" in its characteristic weird savagery, was held when the 25th anniversary of the settlement of the White Earth reservation here was celebrated. That was 25 years ago today. Evening suits with all their modernism were the order for the forty-ninth annual celebration today. Many representatives of Minnesota Chippewa Indian bands were present.

SUFFRAGISTS WORKING.

St. Louis, June 14.—Every delegate to the Democratic National Convention, opening today, has a series of white robed satellites trailing him. They are suffragettes—dressed in white, with yellow parasols, arm bands, sashes and caps. The idea is simply to engulf the Democratic hosts with the preponderance of women's desire for the ballot, so the delegates will vote into the national platform a plank approving a suffrage constitutional amendment. It was estimated that there are 8,000 women franchise workers here, and they made things lively in their campaigning by bands, street speeches and dogged pertinacity of their pursuit of delegates.

WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. are continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

The exercises were held in the open-air amphitheatre on the campus, Indiana being one of the few universities in the United States holding her commencement exercises out of doors.

The commencement exercises were preceded by the annual commencement procession across the campus, headed by the University or First Regiment band followed by the faculty and seniors in caps and gowns.

Mrs. Collier Says Could Not Keep House Without Black-Draught.

Hardin, Mo.—Mrs. J. W. Collier, of this town, who knows from experience of the merit of Black-Draught Liver Medicine, has following to say for publication: "I want to let everybody know that I have used Theodor's Black-Draught for many years, and it is just what is claimed for it. I am never without Black-Draught, and really I couldn't keep house without it. Whenever I feel bad, I take a small dose, and feel better right away. I advise everybody who suffers from liver or stomach trouble to use Black-Draught Liver Medicine."

For three-quarters of a century (75 years), Theodor's Black-Draught has been regulating irregularities of the liver, stomach and bowels, and has long been recognized as the standard remedy. It is a fixture in thousands of homes as the main stay of the family medicine chest.

If you have not tried it, get a package from your nearest dealer, today. He sells it in 25c and $1.00 packages, making it cost you only one cent a dose.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WOMAN ATTORNEY IS MAKING GOOD

First One Appointed Receives Congratulations From Federal Judge For Her Work.

HANDLES NEUTRALITY CASES

(By United Press.)
San Francisco, June 14.—Mrs. Annette Adams, whose appointment as assistant United States attorney caused excitement in officialdom in Washington and San Francisco, has made good.

While here on a visit, Federal Judge Bledsoe of Los Angeles went out of his way to pay his respects to the federal prosecutor and tell her he was sorry he had opposed her appointment.

"I've got to take off my hat to you," said Judge Bledsoe. "You have made good, and never again will I refuse to endorse a woman in any capacity."

During the bomb plot sensation in San Francisco Mrs. Adams worked all night and prevented an important indictment from being quashed on account of technical errors.

Mrs. Adams is distinctively feminine, not only in her personal mannerisms and attributes, but in her methods of procedure in the courtroom. Her personality gives the austere chambers a "homey" atmosphere. She presents her arguments quietly, but with great fidelity to the essentials.

During the absence of District Attorney Preston, Mrs. Adams directed the affairs of the office without a hitch. Her handling of the U. S. neutrality cases especially won admiration.

PUBLICITY TO BE DISCUSSED

Sunday Schools at Convention to Give Credit to Newspapers For Aid in Work.

SESSIONS OPEN ON JUNE 20

State Newspapers Are Publishing More News of Schools Than Ever Before, It is Said.

Muncie, Ind., June 14.—Newspapers and other kinds of publicity for Sunday schools will be one of the dominating themes at the convention of the Indiana association here June 20 to 22 inclusive. The Indiana association established a division of publicity two years ago, and its chief work has been to impress upon the school workers throughout the state the importance of advertising, and especially in the judicious use of printers' ink. The state department has endeavored to help them along publicity lines in two ways: By having each county association to establish a department of publicity by finding some trained newspaper man or woman, who would give volunteer service to take charge of it. The other help has been to urge each school to appoint a young man or woman as press representative of the school, this representative to be aided by a publicity committee, the state association mapping out some definite lines of work for the press representatives to follow.

The result has been that newspapers over the state are publishing more news of their home Sunday schools than they ever did before the department was started and the newspapers are having less difficulty in obtaining school news. The first conference on publicity in the history of the Indiana association, and probably the first held in the United States, was that at the convention a year ago, when the conference was attended by more than 200 Sunday School men and women who were anxious to receive ideas on how to advertise their schools. The second conference will be at the Muncie convention. In addition to this session, each department of workers will during the convention hear special discussions on how departmental work may be advertised.

The convention itself is being very widely advertised by the Indiana association from its Indianapolis headquarters. Posters giving the speakers, singers and other features of the convention, have been sent broadcast over Indiana and they are now hanging in practically every Sunday school in Indiana. The association has also sent stamps to its county organizations which are being used on the mail going out to thousands of individual workers. The poster stamp, first used in Sunday school convention publicity last year is now regarded as an effective medium of advertising the annual meeting, being held second in importance to the newspaper.

BOOSTING MOVEMENT.

St. Paul, Minn., June 14.—In a plan of further state development by the co-operation of all organization formed for boosting Minnesota, the All-Minnesota Development association met today in a three days meeting. The association was formed of all existing development associations, by the late governor W. S. Hammond.

DETROIT GERMS ARE SCARED STIFF

Driven to Cover When 15,000 Doctors Invade City For American Medical Association Meeting.

IS 67th ANNUAL CONVENTION

(By United Press.)

Detroit, June 14.—Every germ in Detroit was scared stiff today when 15,000 doctors and other medical folk arrived from all over the United States for the 67th annual National Convention of the American Medical Association. This will be one of the largest conventions ever entertained by Detroit.

Meeting simultaneously with the Medical association, the following organizations opened their annual convention today.

American Academy of Medicine; American Protologic society; American Therapeutic society; American Gastrologic society and the American Association of Medical Editors, representing 200 periodicals.

Next Friday more than a thousand of the visiting physicians will go to Ann Arbor on special trains to be the guests of the medical department of the university of Michigan.

HOW CONVENTIONS VOTE.

In the Republican convention, precedent has established that a majority vote is sufficient to nominate. Division of state votes is also permitted by custom.

The Democratic convention is governed by the "two-thirds" vote and that "unit system" that is, two-thirds is necessary to vote, and the votes of individual state delegations must be cast en bloc. This practice dates back to the 1832 convention, when Jackson invented it to force Van Buren's nomination as vice-president on the ticket with him.
